Yetta Hey,

As I sit here preparing for our January Senior Princess meeting I am reminded of how fast time goes! This coming weekend a number of us will be attending our last AP Induction. It feels like just yesterday our daughters were kindergartners... all new to the Princesses and to the two Sun outposts [The Mighty] Aleshanee and [The Mighty] Chowichan Angels. Now my daughters are talking about make-up, cheerleading, dance and volleyball?!

In this new year I task each of us Dads and Daughters to please take time and invest in each others lives. I know the schedule can be busy with activities and school and jobs. I know sometimes there is just exhaustion from a busy week. However before you get sucked into your phone to watch Tik-Tok dances or mindlessly delete random emails please take a moment to check in with each other. Grab a cup of coffee sit on the couch and ask each other for a random story from the others day. The time flies and the value of your relationship is so much greater than anything else going on in your life!

As always remember this organization exists to create group opportunities where Dads and Daughters can continue to connect throughout the middle school and high school years. We welcome all new [THE MIGHT SUN TERRITORY} and veteran members to consider getting involved by taking an officer position or just helping run an event or most importantly just showing up with your daughter(s)!

ALL Dads and Daughters are always invited to any officer meeting at Yorktown Lanes from 7:30-8:30 pm on the first Thursday of the month!

Attention New Senior Princesses!

Everyone remembers how we got patches at each event.

That was sooooo 2023.

In the Sr. Princesses we have plaques, and you get a new plate for each event.

(Yes, dad's no more stacks of patches, toss out the Amazing Goop)

They are so awesome; I can't even attach a picture of them to this!

We are going to be placing an order.

What do we need from you? Glad you asked.

Please send me an email lipumajoe@yahoo.com

With the exact spelling of your daughter.

Plaques are 15.00.

Thank you,

Joe LiPuma
